Personality Profile

Early Life and Education

Hon. Ikenga Imo Ugochinyere Ikeagwuonu, popularly known as Ojezi Ideato, was born in 1982 in Akokwa, Ideato North Local Government Area of Imo State, Nigeria. His education include:

- Early education: Model Primary School and Roselec International Primary School, both in Akokwa
- Senior School Certificate Examination (SSCE): Bonus Pastor Seminary, Osina, and St. Mary's Seminary, Umuowa
- Bachelor's Degree in Law (LL.B): Imo State University
- Barrister-at-Law (L.B): Nigerian Law School, and was called to the Nigerian Bar in 2008

Political Profile and Leadership Journey

Hon. Ikenga Ugochinyere has a rich background in leadership and public service, especially in youth advocacy, public interest activism and governance. Over the years, he has held several strategic roles, including:

- Executive Assistant to the Governor of Imo State ( His Excellency, Gov. Ikedi Ohakim).
- President, National Youth Council of Nigeria (NYCN) – the first Igbo man to hold this office.
- Senate President, National Association of Nigerian Students (NANS)
- Secretary General, African Youth Council (AYC)
- Founding Member, International Youth Council, New York, USA
- Senior Special Assistant to the Senate President of Nigeria (Sen. Bukola Saraki, CON)
- Member, Inauguration/Transition Committee for Former Governor Emeka Ihedioha
- National Spokesperson, Coalition of United Political Parties (CUPP)

In 2023, he was elected to the House of Representatives, where he represents Ideato North and South Federal Constituency of Imo State. He is currently the House Committee Chairman on Petroleum Resources (Downstream) and has championed legislative reforms in the petroleum sector and pushed for constitutional amendments to support Nigeria's political and economic restructuring.

Recognitions, Achievements and Advocacy

Hon. Ikenga Ugochinyere is widely respected for his advocacy on human rights, rule of law, and democratic accountability. His activism has contributed significantly to electoral reforms and democratic development in Nigeria. Despite facing persecution and detention for his outspokenness, he remains a fearless voice against oppression and injustice.

He is also deeply involved in philanthropy and community empowerment, especially in education, youth employment, and rural development. His scholarship and welfare schemes have supported many indigent students, farmers, and women, while he has also facilitated job placements for youths in both the public and private sectors.

As a legal expert and strategist, he previously led Ikenga Imo Ugochinyere Chambers, a high-profile legal consultancy firm in Abuja with clientele spanning the oil and gas, finance, and government sectors.

Personal Life

A devout Catholic, Hon. Ikenga Ugochinyere is married with children. He balances his responsibilities as a lawmaker and activist with a deep commitment to his family and the well-being of his community. His life continues to exemplify courage, leadership, and public service.

Hon. Ugochinyere's legislative footprints in two years

In his two years of stewardship in the 10th House of Representatives (June 2023 - June 2025), Hon. Ugochinyere has recorded enviable footprints as a first-time Member of Parliament. He has sponsored 43 bills, moved 10 motions and presented 12 petitions on behalf of his constituents.

In the period under review, Hon. Ugochinyere has shaped legislative priorities, exercised oversight, advocated for public welfare, and enhanced the responsiveness and effectiveness of governance through motions raised on the floor of the House of Representatives.

Hon. Ugochinyere: In Words and Actions

“ I make it a priority to follow through on resolutions arising from motions I sponsored, especially as they relate to my federal constituency. Recognising that the passage of a motion is only the initial step, I actively monitor the progress of these resolutions with the relevant Ministries, Departments, and Agencies (MDAs) to ensure the full implementation of the said resolutions. ”

▪ Interview with Parliament Reports (March 17, 2025)

“ Among several motions I have sponsored, I am pleased with the implementation of the resolution on the ‘need to rehabilitate the collapsed Akokwa-Umuchima-Mgbe-Orlu federal road and Mgbe-Umuezeala-Oboko bridge in Ideato South Local Government Area of Imo State HR. 107/07/2023’ moved on the floor of the House on Wednesday, 19th July, 2023. Steps were taken to include it in the 2023 Supplementary Budget and the 2024 Appropriation Act ”
